Al-Anon Mens 7/8/9 Steps Workshop

We now step into the realm of action and amends, calling for a higher level of accountability and reconciliation, where our inner discoveries manifest in outward expression.

Embark on a transformative journey with the Al-Anon Men's Steps 7, 8, 9 Workshop. Here we focus on preparing for personal change, making amends, and healing relationships. These steps form a crucial phase that translates inner work into outward action.

In this one-day workshop, Al-Anon men come together to deepen their understanding of these steps through practical and reflective activities. It's a space to progress from willingness to active amends, embracing the principles of recovery with the support of a community.

This workshop, while part of a series, provides standalone value and is open to all regardless of previous attendance. You'll gain insights and shared experiences that equip you to integrate these steps into your life, fostering personal healing and improved relationships.
