Al-Anon Mens 1/2/3 Step Workshop

Our literature tells us that through study of the Twelve Steps of Al-Anon recovery, we can find peace and even happiness, whether the alcoholic is still drinking or not.

This workshop lays the groundwork for a transformative journey, guided by men who bring their own narratives of experience, strength, and hope. Through collaborative sessions, participants will delve into the initial trio of steps, crafting a foundation for an ongoing practice of recovery.

As part of a comprehensive series of four one-day workshops, this event offers an opportunity to explore the whole 12-step program. While attending all four workshops provides an introduction to 12 steps, each workshop stands alone as a complete experience. Attendance at previous workshops is not a prerequisite.

Individuals at any stage of their step work, whether beginning or deep into their journey, are welcome. No matter where you are on your path, the Men's Workshops are a way to enhance your understanding of Al-Anon's principles and the relationship they foster with you and a Higher Power.
